GGHS ASB CABINET

The A.S.B. Cabinet has much more than pride. They are the ones that make going to school more enjoyable. Many do not realize the importance of this hard working group of individuals in the smooth operation of our school.

Members of A.S.B. Cabinet must be willing to work hard, put in many hours of overtime, and voluntarily "give their all" in everything they do. According to Mr. Pfefer, A.S.B. advisor, "They're the best group I've worked with. They really put a lot of time and effort in what they do."

A.S.B. is involved in most student activities, including pep assemblies, Homecoming, Winterfest, A.S.B. Convention, and much more. We are all thankful to have such an active, industrious, and dedicated A.S.B. Cabinet.

The Pride of

This year, our band and auxiliaries had a very exciting season. Parading along Disneyland's Main Street, they made their public debut led by drum major Jeff Krutsinger. Performing their half-time field show at Western, Orange, and Norwalk high schools, and Cal Poly College, they brought home many awards. At the "Showcase of Bands," they, with the other six GGUSD high schools, strutted their stuff. The marching season was completed with a parade through Knott's Berry Farm. We're proud of you, marchers and musicians!

SPACE SHUTTLE CHALLENGER

JANUARY 28, 1986

"REACH FOR A STAR"

"Reach for a star," wrote the teacher.
"'Tis my dream, I know that I Must seek a path to the heavens,
thru God's window in the sky."
And so it was on that morning,
she found her appointed place,
Daring to reach for her dream-star,
on a journey to outer space.

As "Challenger" lifted the launch-site,
our prayers rose up like a song:
"Lord, let it be a safe voyage, let nothing untoward go wrong."
Then, rising aloft went the space craft to its destiny on high, Climbing a path to reach orbit
thru God's window in the sky.

Then came that awful, thund'ring "burst"
reaching out across the sea,
That fearful blast in the heavens,
and monstrous cacophony.
It echoed in the universe
on a day America wept,
To see her heroes just vanish
in a fearsome intercept.

But we are a nation of heroes, and their faith is ours to keep;
So "Reach for a Star," be our slogan, though their loss is mournfully deep.
"Reach for a Star," America!
Christa's dream is ours to buy,
A legacy from the heavens,
thru God's window in the sky.

And reach out we must — or perish!
The future belongs to the brave.
Mankind must find new horizons,
above and beyond Earth's enclave.
And the lesson Christa would teach us from her post in that far place?
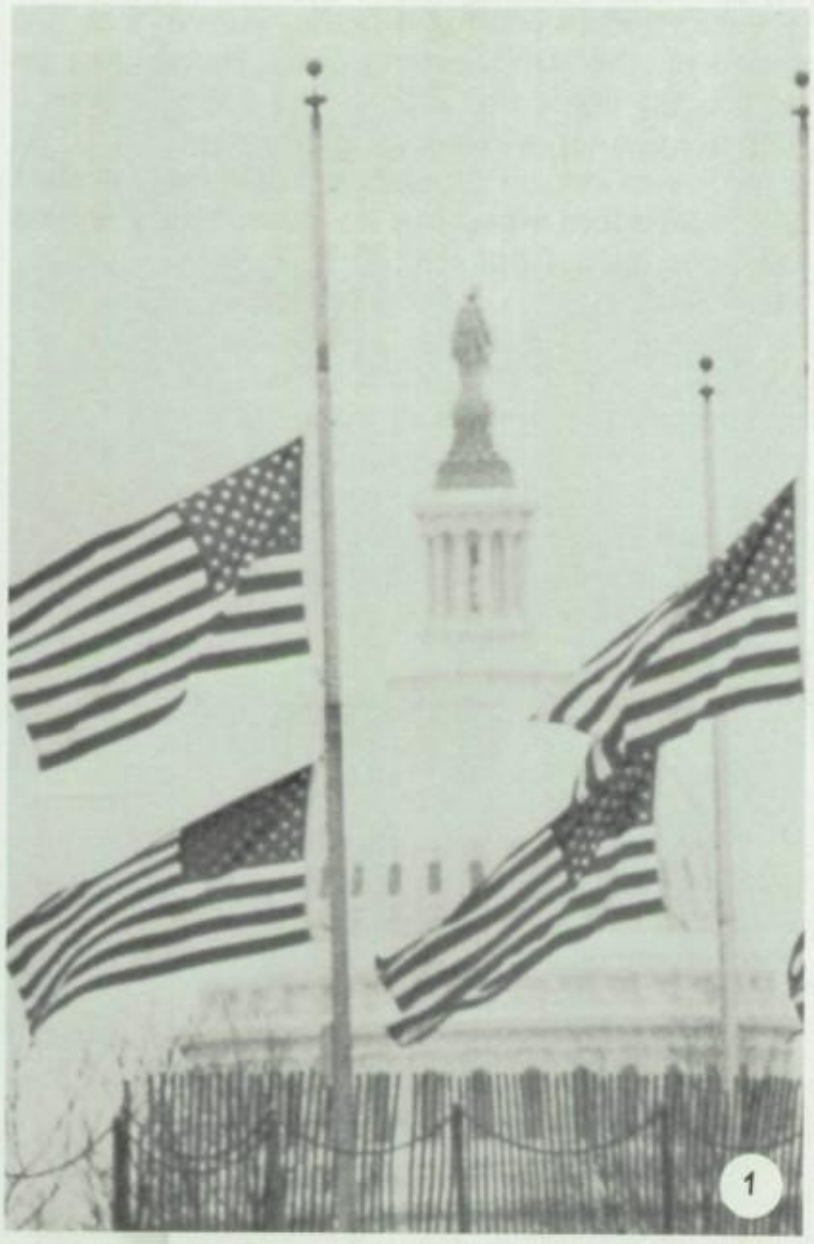
"To the brave belongs the universe,
a star-shrouded world of space."

by Richard E. Franklin

. . . But the Show Must Go On



"The eye accepted what the mind could not: a sudden burst of white and yellow fire, then white trails streaming up and out from the fireball to form a twisted Y against a pure heaven, and the metal turning to rags, dragging white ribbons into the ocean. A terrible beauty exploded like a primal event of physics — the birth of a universe: the death of a star; a fierce, enigmatic violence out of the blue. The mind recoiled in sheer surprise. Then it filled with horror."

— TIME Magazine

The tragedy of the Space Shuttle Challenger affected people all across the nation with sorrow and grief for the seven astronauts and their families.

Throughout the day of January 28, 1986, newscasters sat in front of the camera, revealing the facts and opinions of the press. Video replays of the explosion hammered the disturbing image into millions of people's minds. The unexpected became a reality with the loss of seven precious lives. Christa, Francis, Judy, Ronald, Michael, Ellison, and Greg, we miss you.

"The mission seemed symbolically immaculate, the farthest reach of a perfectly American ambition to cross frontiers. And it simply vanished in the air."

— TIME Magazine

A coach only gets a few teams that have that special quality which makes coaching a pleasure, and this team was one of them. They were eager to learn and apply the new knowledge they were given. They weren't afraid of hard work, in fact, they seemed to thrive on it. This team worked hard every practice. They wanted to improve and did because of a positive attitude. They learned discipline, the ability to sacrifice, and to work as a team, and most of all they learned they could believe in themselves. The team's biggest thrill was winning its first league championship in ten years. Good luck to all of you next year!

Sincerely,
Coach Binley

When You Care Enough to Give It Your Best

At Christmas time this year, Mrs. Zimmer and her special education class sponsored a fund raiser. They asked students with the following teachers; Ms. Beebe, Miss Boyer, Mrs. Habile, Mrs. Smith, Mr. Sorter, Mrs. Wasserman, and Mr. Zajec, and students in the following clubs; Humanities Club, International Club, Girls' League, Pep Club, and Spanish Club, to bring gifts, donate money, and bring clothes for six needy families in the area. The results were tremendous. So many things were brought that some was donated to others. Argo spirit lives in Mrs. Zimmer and her class!

1. Students gathering donated items.
2. Just a look at some of the things donated.

Crew in Action

1. Senior Bill Otsuka won a one thousand dollar scholarship at the California Farm Architecture Competition in Sacramento.
2. Ginger Franklin and Tina Fligor were selected at cheerleading camp to perform in the Sun Bowl half-time show.
3. Over the Christmas vacation the Drama Club went to New York. They went to view several plays on Broadway. Scott Neumann, Holly Moore, Mrs. Draeger, Theresa Tilley, Tina Kitchura, Amy Holston, Adrienne Herrera, Pat Riley, and Tina Carter.

SENIORS

The Tale of Four Years

If they could see us now,

Oh, how we have grown.

It would make them smile,

If only they had known.

It was the best of times,

With memories of our friends.

It was the worst of times,

When we knew it had to end.

It was the age of wisdom,

For putting ourselves to the test.

It was the age of foolishness,

When we did not give it our best.

It was the epoch of belief,

Our lives seemed so complete.

It was the epoch of incredulity,

Now we must stand on our feet.

This is the ending of a chapter,

Not the closing of a book.

The best is still to come,

If only we dare to look.

John,
So, the year's finally over & you won't be ab here anymore. John A. is just gonna have to start hanging around me & Karen. Thanks for the Prom. I had a great time. I mean,
I ever got to try snails (escargo) @ diner.
It's a great memory I'll remember — the PROM that is, not the snails. I hope all your dreams come true. Just don't gamble all your money away.
You made History a lot more enjoyable. Mr. V didn't like either of us it seemed like. What can I say, but Good Luck in life. Ciao, Bella! ever would to do something!

FACULTY

The Executive Producers

1

1. Dr. Edward Dundon completed his twelfth year as superintendent of the Garden Grove Unified School District. Dr. Dundon taught math at Garden Grove High School in the sixties. He was also a vice principal at Garden Grove High. The only real change he has noticed in the high schools of Garden Grove is that there is a decrease in enrollment due to the population. He is hoping to see an improvement in the students test scores because of the increased graduation requirements. He feels the high school graduation requirements were not up to the entrance requirements of colleges, but now because of the changes they are equal. He says of the graduating classes, "Today's graduating classes have the same values of the classes of the sixties and early seventies. They are much more serious."
2. The Board Members are — From L to R: Lynn Hamtil, Dick Hain, Kenneth H. Slimmer, Maureen DiMarco, and Joyce Johnson, they are constantly at work improving our schools.

In Their Leading Roles

Jim Delong

"He's one of great character and integrity," said Pierre Habis after interviewing the newest principal of Garden Grove High School, Mr. James Delong. Mr. Delong went to Long Beach Jorden High School and then went to USC on a basketball scholarship. When asked about the students and how he felt about the school when he first came, he said, "The students have a great attitude and the atmosphere around the campus is an overall plus." Being an athlete himself, Mr. Delong mentioned that "Athletics is a positive thing and also a privilege." The overall feeling of Mr. Delong towards GGHS is great and his plans are to keep GGHS at the top . . . Number 1.

One of our fine vice-principals at Garden Grove High is Mr. Bill Langan. Mr. Langan completed his fifth year at Garden Grove in March. He has noticed that the students are more concerned about other students, but he would like to see an improvement in the attendance and grades. He has noticed an improvement in the enthusiasm of the administration. Mr. Langan spends his spare time with his wife and two sons.

Our other fine vice-principal is Mr. Jim Morrison. Mr. Morrison completed his second year at Garden Grove High School this year. He enjoys woodworking and singing in his church choir. He is fond of his job because he is able to work with young people and see many of them change for the better. In the future, Mr. Morrison would like to see the diverse needs of our multi-cultured students met.

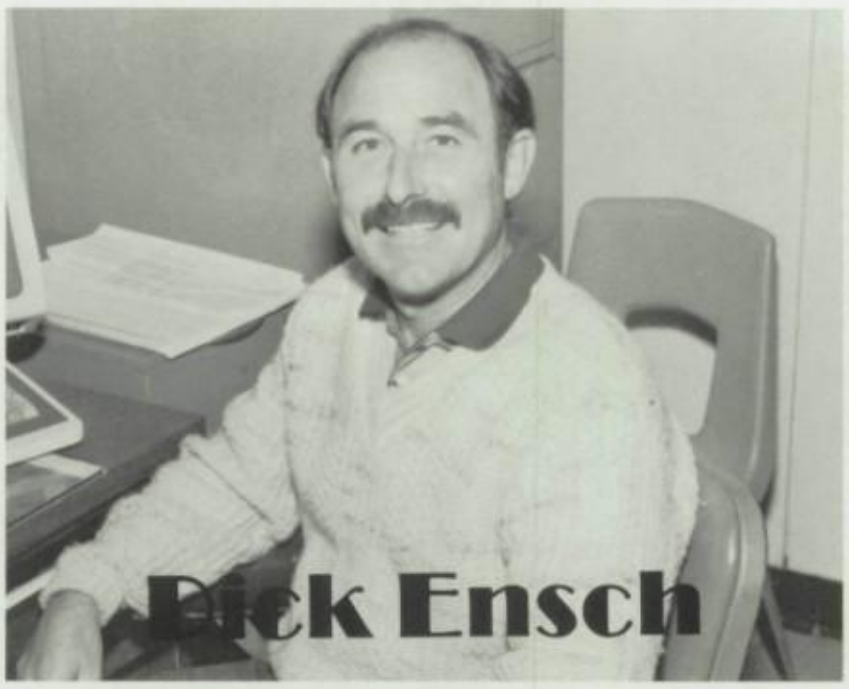
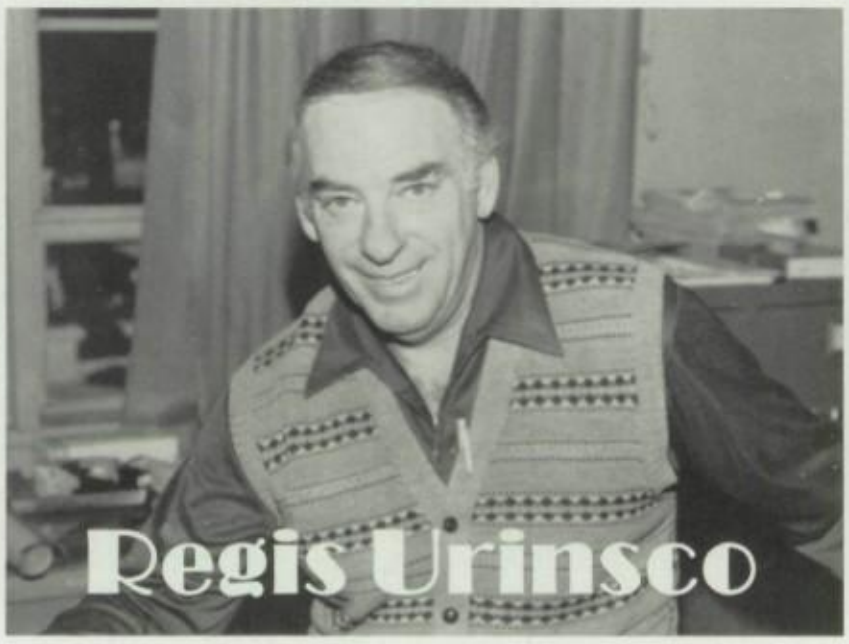
The Academy





The Guidance Office was very helpful to each student. With counselors Dick Ensch in charge of testing, "You're only here for 4 years, give it the best for education is free, so take advantage of it"; Betty Harris, in charge of Financial Aid, "Be sure to have goals, but be flexible"; Regis Urinsco, in charge of college visitation, "Every time you have eye contact with a fellow student, say hello . . . it would be a more friendly campus"; and Judy Wagner, in charge of ROP, "Make responsible choices because those choices will determine the outcome of your life," no student was without help. The secretaries that assisted the counselors were Mary Mitchell, Momi Callis, and Hilda Lucin.

HOLLYWOOD — a place of the past, present, and future.

We reminisce of the past, are challenged by the present, and look forward to the future. Today we look back — back to the past and wonder what it was like; wonder "if they could see us now."

The Silver screen was filled with such greats as James Dean (1) and Marilyn Monroe (2). The familiar phrase of "Gee Wally!" was once again heard as reruns of "Leave it to Beaver" returned to TV. We listened to the jumping and sometimes tear jerking sounds of Elvis Presley (4) and laughed as "Buckwheat" (5) and the "Little Rascals" (3) were constantly involved in new adventures. "If they could see us now" — they'd be proud!

In Memory of Sam Lum
Teacher and Friend

Oh somewhere in this favored land dark clouds may hide the sun
And somewhere bands no longer play and children have no fun and somewhere over blighted lives there hangs a heavy pall But Mudville hearts are happy now — for Casey hit the ball!

The following announcement was read by Ms. Haggerty the day after his death:

G.G.H.S. has lost a dear friend — really more than a friend — a part of our personal families as well as our Argonaut family. Mr. Lum has taught mathematics here for twenty-one years, and he was always proud to be a teacher, the teacher to his students whom he deeply loved.

Grief at this moment is appropriate and shared, but it is also good to remember him with pride.

Let us remember him for his joy and satisfaction in teaching, for his love of Garden Grove High School and its students, for his great enthusiasm for baseball, basketball, football and bowling, for everything about Arkansas, for the time he coached water polo when he couldn't even swim, and for just being our Sam. We all surely will miss him.

Argo Fashion
The Difference Between Dressed and Well-Dressed

In the mid-80's, a new type of fashion hit Garden Grove scene. It was a mixture of European and attitude. How you dressed reflected your personality, style, and social status. Femininity took a big role of this new wave. GGHS saw more men growing their hair long and wearing make-up.

I JUST HAD to write it!

If you don't want to give me your car you could give me a never ending ride.

Dick-

No one's home right now.... DICK! Well, pal, the year is finally coming to an end. And. sob sob. I'm going to miss all of our "Tony Ingo." MMMM-B-JA-MANG! Ha Pal! Ya Sir... Arafat! Whoooooooo..... The shorter form: JA-MANG. It's been fun. I know that I have said a lot about how I think you shouldn't graduate a year early and that you should stay another year, BUT, If that's what you want to do, put your mind to it and do it. Youire such a damn Conivor, I can't believe it. Tony, Hector, ditto'd dollar bills at the laundromat, buying things at May Co. and then returning them for the money. SHIT. Damn Jew. And what about the Prom? PLEASE! SHOOOOOOOE! What about the .55 & tip on a $160.00 check. Whoooooooo..... ! JA-MANG. Never forget that your Beamer IS THE hottest car at our school. - "Do you know John Skelfington?" "NO" "you know, the guy with the white BMW" "Oh yeah, that guy; That's a rad car..." That car is your entire identity. Oh well. I'm sure that we will all still be in touch when we're "old and gray". Steff, seriously, I'm sure that you'll make a good lawyer because your such a fucking conivor! UCR Man. Insurance Man. Whoooooooo..... Blind Man. Rabbit action don't like you no more! Snoopy-architect NEVER liked you at all. Whooooo. Steff, pal, sob-sob. I'll miss ya. Good luck at Western State! Love ya- Mike Lester
